I SHALL PASS THIS WAY BUT ONCE THEREFORE ANY GOOD THAT I CAN DO OR ANY KINDNESS THAT I CAN SHOW LET ME DO IT NOW FOR I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

I was asked a question recently of what effects will come because of the rising crime rate in America. This question I can't say I have an answer to. I hope that this never happens in Seattle the way that it's happening in a lot of the large cities where the youth are burglarizing, raping, purse snatching and so forth. But how can we ignore these kinds of acts and yet demand humane treatment for all citizens? This has always been. The Have-Nots have always been this way. Remember the French revolution? And a guy named Fidel Castro? Those that languish for food and the basic human necessities have always been desperate.

Now this is not to excuse their behavior or the undesirability of it, but let's face it -- we've literally been impotent and powerless on acts of this kind. What all of us see happening in the cities of America today is living and breathing proof that bigotry, racism, separatism, discrimination simply don't work. They haven't worked for whites and they don't work for blacks. They don't work for anyone. With proper education, discipline, recreational and emotional outlets, many of the incorrigible ones today might have been productive citizens. Separate and unequal schools, no money, inadequate food and health care and nothing to achieve gave birth to this 1975 monster.

Let's not repeat the same mistakes again. Yes, there are things wrong with the welfare and food stamp program, but both are also badly needed. Employment is badly needed, especially for the young. The cost of the welfare program has been frequently referred to as the underlying cause of the impending bankruptcy of many of our cities. But think of the cost of crime. The total society must, in the final analysis, bear both responsibilities -- the care of those that need, and the apathy, inaction and failure of our system of government to adequately take care of its own. Both the question and the answer should tell us something, but it's obvious that dialogue is needed. We've got to begin to exchange ideas truthfully. Our democracy is threatened enough abroad. We as a nation don't need these serious internal divisions here at home. RIGHT ON!

Health Agency To Be Formed

Citizens interested in influencing health care in northwest Washington are encouraged to participate in hearings this month on the formation of a health agency mandated by recent federal legislation.

The hearings, scheduled throughout the ten northwest counties, will be held locally at 7:30 p.m., December 10, tenth floor County Commissioners Chambers, County/City Building, Tacoma. Linsey Hinand, president of the Pierce Health Planning Council, will preside. A regional meeting is set for 8:00 p.m., December 15 in Conference Room 'A', Center House, Seattle Center.

The new health systems agency (HSA), one of four in Washington State, is mandated by the National Health Planning and Resource Development Act of 1974 to improve health, its availability and accessibility, to restrain costs, and to avoid unnecessary duplication of services and facilities.

The hearings are on the draft application of the Puget Sound Health Planning Council to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for designation as the Puget Sound Health Systems Agency. The application includes a description of the organizational structure, goals, activities, cost, staff, and names of board members.

Focus of the law is on community-based health planning. Volunteer consumers and providers, assisted by staff and working through local and regional boards, will coordinate other community planning in areas such as mental health, alcoholism, and the environment. The HSA's also will continue many functions of comprehensive health planning agencies and retional medical programs, relating to helpitals, nursing homes, ambulatory care and similar concerns.

"Past efforts in studying the health scene in the Puget Sound region and making recommendations to improve health care and services will not be abandoned but will serve as building blocks for future developments," William R. Hogarty, executive director of Puget Sound HPC, said.

The proposed HSA, in addition to a 59 to 71-member regional board, will have six sub-area councils: 1 each for King, Kitsap, Pierce, and Snohomish counties; 1 covering the present North Puget Sound Health planning area; and 1 for Clallam and Jefferson counties.

The law stipulates that board membership must be representative of each area's socio-economic, linguistic, racial, and geographic (urban-rural) populations. An 11-member regional task force has been working intensively the past few weeks to prepare the application, including selection of board members.

Serving on the task force is Molly Edman, Lakewood, vice president of Puget Sound HPC. Her alternate is Melvin Jackson, Tacoma Human Development Department director and member of the Pierce CHP board of directors.

Copies of the draft application have been sent to numerous provider and consumer organizations. Copies also may be reviewed at the Pierce CHP office, 201 So. 34th Street, Tacoma, and at the main branch libraries in Tacoma, Lakewood, and Puyallup.

Testimony at hearings should be submitted in writing, even though it may also be presented verbally. Additional written comments will be accepted at the Puget Sound HPC office, 601 Valley Street, Seattle, 98109, until December 26.

Beacon Hill Resident Becomes Nation's First Ship's Pilot

Charles Swain (right), is sworn in as America's first Black ship's pilot by Lt. Richard Wescott, Senior Inspector for the U.S. Coast Guard.

Seattle's Charles Swain was sworn in by the United States Coast Guard as a First Class Pilot on November 25, and thus became the first Black ship's pilot in the United States. A resident of Beacon Hill, Swain is now qualified to pilot the ferry boats on the Mukilteo - Columbia Beach run.

Swain, who is also the only Black Merchant Marine officer in the State of Washington, has been in the Merchant Marine since 1966. He was assisted in getting his pilot qualifications by the Seattle Urban League's Client Advocate, Bill Rowe.

"I feel exhilarated, "said the new pilot after he was sworn in. "I wanted to become a pilot for a Puget Sound run because I will be able to stay in my community and help others follow in my footsteps."

Swain is used to setting records. He was also the first Black to attend the U.S. Maritime School and Crawford Nautical College.

LEGISLATION WILL STIFLE T.C.C. FUNDING

Legislation controlling funding of the state community college system is forcing Tacoma Community College to close its "open door".

Winter quarter enrollment will be cut back. This fall, the FTE (full-time student equivalent) figure for the college was a record 4,279. This figure is expected to drop to 3,800 next quarter.

Last year's fall FTE was 3,753 which increased to 3,853 during the winter quarter.

"The legislature has placed limitations upon the state community college system in terms of the number of students who can be funded and served," explained Dr. Larry Stevens, TCC president.

"This curtailment made it impossible for us to continue to serve our community as we at the college believe it deserves to be served. In essence, the 'Open Door' for those who can benefit from our services has been closed," he added.

Last year, about one-half of the enrollment for winter quarter were new students. This winter, only about one-quarter will be new students.

"We earnestly hope that the next legislature will fund the system at a level which will enable us to reopen the door and resume full service to the citizens of the area," Dr. Stevens concluded.

Urban League Sponsors Conference

Douglas E. Moore

"Human Needs: Future Alternatives" will be the topic discussed at the Tacoma Urban League (TUL) Citizen Education Conference to be held at Tacoma Community College Saturday, December 6th.

Participating in the conference will be renowned civil rights leader Douglas E. Moore, vice-chairman of the Washington, D.C. City Council, founder of the Black United Fund;and local social service agencies who will display booths with information on community services available in the local area.

"The purpose of the conference is to acquaint community residents with the human resources that are currently available in Tacoma and Pierce County while exposing them to views of both local and national persons concerned with future alternatives for the provision of human services for all citizens," explained Lawanna B. Lee, TUL Deputy Director for Community Services.

Also speaking at the conference will be Dr. Edward L. Jones, a Professor of Law at the University of Washington. Following speaker presentations, the film "Future Shock" will be shown.

"The latter part of the conference will involve the attending participants in the prioritizing of future alternatives for the provision of human services in the areas of housing, health care, food, and education," continued Lawanna. Experts in each field will be on hand to facilitate in that planning process.

The conference is the last of four public forums of the Citizen Education Program to be sponsored by the Washington Commission for the Humanities.

Dear Sir:

The Department of Social and Health Services in the State of Washington has for the past several years been responsible for processing applications for food stamps to all persons who wished to apply for this service. The Tacoma Avenue Office, located at 1301 Tacoma Avenue South, is the location where persons residing in Zip Codes 98401, 98402, 98403, 98404, 98408, 98409, 98411, 98412, 98421, 98422 and 98423 can apply.

We would like to ask the TACOMA FACTS' support in encouraging potentially eligible persons known to you to take advantage of the Food Stamp Program.
